Monumental Inscriptions.

CHAPEL-EN-LE-FRITH CHURCH, Co. DERBY.

TO MAKE KNOWN, AND TO KEEP IN MEN'S MEMORIES THE WORTHY
DEEDS OF AN INHABITANT OF THIS PARISH,
WILLIAM BAGSHAWE,
OF FORD HALL, NAMED THE APOSTLE OF THE PEAK—
THIS INSCRIBED STONE IS ERECTED, IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE WILL OF HIS GRANDSON HEREAFTER MENTIONED.

HE WAS THE ELDEST SON OF WILLIAM BAGSHAWE, ESQ., OF ABNEY, LITTON, HUCKLOW, AND FORD; WAS BORN AT LITTON JAN. 17, 1628; EDUCATED AT CORPUS CHRISTI COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE; ORDAINED A MINISTER OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND WHEN THAT CHURCH WAS PRESBYTERIAN; EXERCISED HIS OFFICE AT WORMHILL, AT SHEFFIELD, AND IN THE NEIGHBOURING PARISH OF GLOSSOP, OF WHICH HE WAS FOR ELEVEN YEARS THE VICAR. AFTER THE RESTORATION OF EPISCOPACY, BEING UNABLE TO COMPLY WITH THE TERMS OF THE CELEBRATED ACT OF 1662, HE RESIGNED HIS ECCLESIASTICAL PREFERMENT, AND RETIRED TO FORD HALL, HIS PATRIMONIAL INHERITANCE. BUT THOUGH HE CEASED TO BE A MINISTER OF THE ESTABLISHED CHURCH, HE DID NOT ALLOW HIMSELF TO BE DIVESTED OF HIS CHARACTER OF A MINISTER OF THE WORD OF GOD. LIKE THE APOSTLES PETER AND JOHN (ACTS V., 42) HE CEASED NOT TO TEACH AND TO PREACH BOTH AT HIS OWN HOUSE AND FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE. NOR DID HE LABOUR IN VAIN. THROUGHOUT THESE WILD REGIONS A SPIRITUAL AWAKENING SUCH AS HAD NEVER BEFORE BEEN WITNESSED FOLLOWED HIS EXHORTATIONS, AND MULTITUDES WERE LED TO ACCEPT FROM HIS LIPS THE OFFER OF ETERNAL LIFE. FREE GRACE THROUGH A CRUCIFIED REDEEMER WAS THE THEME WHICH PRODUCED SO MIGHTY A RESULT, FOR ALTHOUGH M^{R} BAGSHAWE WAS VERY CAREFUL TO PRESS MORAL DUTIES, YET HE WAS FAR MORE SOLICITOUS TO UNFOLD THE MYSTERY OF THE GOSPEL, AND TO PROCLAIM THE UNSEARCHABLE RICHES OF CHRIST, BEING FULLY SATISFIED THAT UNLESS MEN BE WASHED IN HIS BLOOD, CLOTHED WITH HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, AND ANIMATED BY HIS SPIRIT, THEIR HIGHEST ATTAINMENTS AND MOST SPLENDID PERFORMANCES WILL LEAVE THEM SHORT OF HEAVEN.

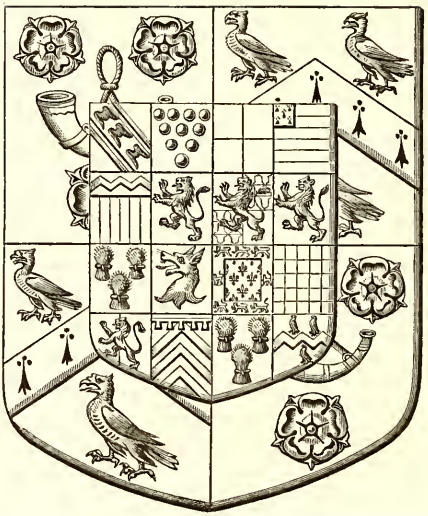
FOR FORTY YEARS THIS PARISH WAS THE CENTRE OF HIS EVANGELISTIC EFFORTS, WHICH EMBRACED THE WHOLE OF NORTH DERBYSHIRE.

TOWARDS THE CLOSE OF HIS LIFE THE INFIRMITIES OF AGE OBLIGED HIM GRADUALLY TO TRANSFER TO OTHERS THE OVERSIGHT OF THE NUMEROUS CONGREGATIONS WHICH HE HAD GATHERED, AND ON THE FIRST OF APRIL 1702, HE FELL ASLEEP IN JESUS, RESTING ALL HIS HOPES ON THAT IMPUTED RIGHTEOUSNESS OF WHICH HE HAD SO OFTEN PREACHED.

HIS REMAINS ARE INTERRED IN THE CHANCEL OF THIS CHURCH.

ALSO IN MEMORY OF AGNES HIS WIFE, THE DAUGHTER OF PETER BARKER OF DARLEY, IN THIS COUNTY; BAPTIZED APRIL 10, 1629, MARRIED JUNE 11, 1651, DIED NOVEMBER 11, 1701.

ALSO OF JOHN BAGSHAWE, THEIR ELDEST SON, BORN JANUARY 8, 1654, AND BURIED MAY 25, 1664.



ALSO OF SAMUEL BAGSHAWE, ESQ., OF FORD HALL, THEIR SECOND AND ONLY SURVIVING SON—"AN ACCOMPLISHED GENTLEMAN, A GOOD SCHOLAR, AND A PIOUS CHRISTIAN"—BORN DECEMBER 31, 1656, DIED DECEMBER 8, 1706.

Will of William Attree of Ditchling, co. Sussex, 1747.

William Attree of Ditchling bricklayer, will dated 8th September 1746. Whereas I have surrendered into the hands of the lord of the manor of Camoise all that my now dwelling house, outhouse, garden and orchard with the appurtenances to such use or uses as I sho'd direct by my last will and testament, I do hereby give all that my aforesaid dwelling house, outhouse or shop garden orchard and appurtenances whatsoever to the same belonging also my croft or field thereunto adjoining unto my son John Attree of Ditchling maltster his heirs and assigns for ever but paying out of the said house and premises three pounds a year by quarterly payments to my daughter Elizabeth Fuller now wife of John Fuller of Ditchling, Timber broker, and afterwards to her children till they shall be of the age of twenty one years and no longer. Also out of my personal estate I give to the said Elizabeth Fuller the sum of seven pounds yearly to be paid quarterly and afterwards to her children. I also bequeath to the said child or children the further sum of two hundred pounds to be equally divided amongst them but only in case my son-in-law John Fuller shall cause my said daughter Elizabeth to be admitted into the copyhold lands and premises lately purchased by him of John Turner and Susan Palmer, and then my executor shall deliver in John Fuller's note of hand for one hundred pounds which he owes me fully cancelled and this being done my daughter Elizabeth shall receive but five pounds instead of seven pounds yearly out of my personal estate and the child or children but one hundred and fifty pounds instead of two hundred pounds. And I do hereby appoint my son John Attree maltster whole and sole executor of this my last will and testament, and do give him full possession of my real and personal estate to pay my just debts and funeral expenses, and the residue I leave to him, his heirs, executors and assigns for ever, solemnly enjoining him to give proper security by bond or otherwise to my kinsman John Lucas of Barcombe Gent, or some other trustee named by my daughter Fuller for the punctual performance of anything relating to her annuity, if she think such security necessary. Witnesses: Peter Browne, Henry Browne, John Browne.

Will of John Attree of Ditchling, co. Sussex, 1772.

The Will of Mr. John Attree of Ditchling 10th August 1762. The last will and testament of John Attree of Ditchaling in the county of Sussex, maltster, made and written with my own hands this tenth day of August in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Two. First and principally I bequeath my soul to God who gave it, trusting for remission of sins through Jesus Christ, and my body to be devoutly interred at the discretion of my wife believing and hoping for the resurrection to eternal life. Secondly I make and ordain my eldest son John Attree executor of this my will and do constitute and appoint my two brothers-in-law John Scrase and William Rogers both of the parish of Pacham gaurdians to my children till they arrive at the age of twenty one years, and trustees to execute this my will for and in the name of my son and executor being now a minor till he is by law capable to act for himself and to do everyth.ng in the same manor that he might have done had he been of full age. Thirdly I thus ordain and dispose of my worldly goods. I will that my marriage bond and settlement in behalf of my wife stand good in all intents and purposes according to their true meaning in law and equity. Item: I give and bequeath to my son William Attree the full sum of five hundred and fifty pounds to be paid him when he shall attain to the age of twenty one years. Also I give and bequeath to my son Harry Attree the full sum of six hundred pounds to be paid him when he shall attain to the age of twenty-one years. Also I give and bequeath to my daughter Sukey Attree the full sum of six hundred pounds to be paid her when she shall attain to the age of twenty three years, but the interes if she shall require it to be paid her from the time she shall be of the age of twenty one years. Also I give and bequeath to my youngest son Richard Attree the full sum of ffour hundred and fifty pounds to be paid him when he shall attain to the age of twenty one years. Item: I give to my wife Susanna Attree fifty pounds for mourning and half my household goods and linen. All the rest of my real estate I give as followeth All the Bowris both copyhold and ffree under a restriction hearafter to be named I give and devise to my eldest son John Attree his heirs and assigns for ever being first surrendered according to law, and one ffield called Wollcroft in the Rectory manor of Ditchaling to hold to him and his heirs for ever. Also I give and devise to my son William Attree his heirs and assigns for ever all that houses and premisses late my ffathers both copyhold and free paying out of the same three pounds a year to my sister Elisabeth Ffuller by quarterly payments and given by my ffather in his last will. Also I give and devise to my youngest son Richard Attree his heirs and assigns for ever all that my house and malthouse with all the appurtinances theirunto belonging after the death of my wife Susanna Attree, being a joynter to her before marriage. Item: All the rest of my personal and real estate I give to my eldest son and executor before named, willing him or his trustees for him to pay out of the same to my sister Elisabeth Ffuller aforesaid the sum of seven pounds yearly by quarterly payments towards the annuity of ten pounds a year left by my ffather during her life. Also my will and intent is that if either of my sons or my daughter should die before they attain to the age hereinbefore mentioned then the whole of their fortune that is personall estate should be equally divided between the other four. And as for my real estate, if my son John should die before he is of age, without lawfull issue I will and devise the Bowris to go and decend immediately to my next son William Attree his heirs and assigns for ever. And I would have it observed that my will and mind is that all my children should be brought up at the discretion of my wife and trustees till each of them shall arrive at the age before mentioned out of the joynt income of my real and personall estate in the hands of my said trustees. Also my will and mind is that if their should be any sum or sums of money lost by any misfortune above the sum of Twenty Pounds then for all my children to go share and share alike in the said lost or lostes and not for the whole lost to fall on my executor. Lastly I do direct and order a full and true inventory of all my goods and chattels credits and debts due to me to be taken by proper persons within one month after my decease, by and under the care and inspection of my son's guardians and trustees. For confirmation of which as my last will and testament I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written Jn Attree. Signed, sealed published and declared to be the last will and testament of the said John Attree the testator by him in our presence who sign the same as witnesses at his request, Thos: Street, Ambras Glasbrook, Richard Burt."

In the name of God Amen. I John Attree of Ditchling in the County of Sussex Gentleman, do publish and declare this to be my codicil to be annexed unto and taken as part of my last will and testament which will bears date the tenth day of August one Thousand seven hundred and sixty two, and hath been by me resealed and published immediately before the execution of this codicil and subject thereto. And I hereby give and bequeath unto my loving wife Susanna Attree and unto my son William Attree the further sum of ffifty pounds a piece of lawful money of Great Britain over and above what is given in and by my said will, both which said legacies I will and desire to be paid to them within six months next after my decease by my son and executor John Attree within the said will named out of my personal estate. And also I give and bequeath unto my son Harry Attree the further sum of ffifty pounds of like lawful money of Great Britain over and above what is given in and by my said will; and also unto my son Richard Attree the further sum of one hundred pounds of like lawful money over and above what is given in and by my said will, both which said legacies hereby given and bequeathed to my said sons Harry and Richard, I will and desire to be paid to them as soon as they arrive to their respective ages of twenty one years or days of marriage which shall first happen out of my personal estate by my said executor John Attree. And lastly I give and bequeath unto my daughter Suky Attree the further sum of ffifty pounds of like lawful money of Great Britain over and above what is given in and by my said will, which said legacy I will and desire to be paid to her by my said executor out of my personal estate as soon as she arrives to her age of twenty three years or day of marriage which shall first happen and in all other respects I confirm my said will. In witness whereof I the said John Attree have to this my codicil set my hand and seal this thirty first day of May in the year of our Lord one Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two. Jn Attree. (L.S.) Signed, sealed published and declared by the said John Attree as and for a codicil to be annexed unto and taken as part of his last will and testament in the presence of us who in his presence and at his request and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto. Thos Cruse, Matthew Berry Peter Morfee Clk to Mr Dodson.

By the tenor of these presents we Roger Pettiward Clerk Doctor in Divinity, Commissary or Principal Official of the Right Reverend Father in God Sir William Ashburnham Baronet by divine permission lord Bishop of Chichester, in and through the whole Archdeaconry of Lewes in the diocese of Chichester aforesaid lawfully constituted make known to all men that on the twenty eighth day of November in the year of our Lord one Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two before the Reverend Edward Lund Clerk our Surrogate lawfully constituted, the last will and testament and codicil of John Attree late of Ditcheling within the Archdeaconry aforesaid deceased hereunto annexed was proved approved and registered and administration of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the deceased and any way concerning his will was then granted to John Attree the son the sole executor named in the said will being first sworn upon the holy evangelists will and faithfully to administer the same and to make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the said goods, chattels and credits, and to exhibite the same in the registry of the ecclesiastical court at Lewes on or before the last day of December next ensuing and also to render a just and true account thereof. Will of Richard Mant, 1849.

In the name of God The Holy Trinity, Amen. I Richard Mant Lord Bishop of Down Connor & Dromore now residing at the Palace, near Belfast, in the Kingdom of Ireland, do offer my most humble & hearty thanks that I was by Baptism incorporated into His Holy Church & brought up in its Communion, apart from the Corruptions & Errors of the Church of Rome on the one hand, & on the other, from the imaginations of modern Sectaries & that in the discharge of my duty as a Minister of God, it has, by His Grace been my Endeavour, tho' with a deep consciousness of much and manifold imperfection to give my faithful diligence always so to minister the Doctrine & Sacraments and the Discipline of Christ, as The Lord hath commanded and as this Church and Realm hath received the same, according to the Commandments of God, so that I might teach the people committed to my charge, with all diligence to keep and observe the same. Touching the settling and disposing of such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me and wherein I must humbly acknowlege His undeserved bounty, however the effects of it may have been reduced by unexpected disappointments & losses. I desire that my just debts, funeral expences & the costs & charges of proving my Will be paid by my Executors hereinafter named. I direct that my body be interred in the parish Church of Hillsborough near the remains of my late beloved Wife, to whom I trust to be reunited by the Mercy of God and the Merits of our Redeemer at the Resurrection of the Just—in such manner as is becoming my Station in Life, due regard being paid by my Executors to the conducting of my funeral with as much economy as possible, and that if it be judged desirable to mark the place by a memorial, such memorial to be in the form of a Tablet like that placed to the memory of my late beloved Wife in the said Parish Church of Hillsborough and that the Inscription thereon be limited to a recitation of my name and of the dates of my birth, preferments & decease, with the addition of the second and third Sentences of The Scriptures, which introduce the Church's Order for Morning & Evening Prayer daily throughout the Year, namely Psalm LI., 3, and Psalm LI., 9. I give and bequeath unto my son Walter Bishop Mant, Archdeacon of Down and Rector of Hillsborough my large Silver Salver, given me by my parishioners on leaving Bishopsgate, I give & bequeath unto my son Frederick Woods Mant, Rector of Armoy, the Silver Tureen given me by some of my pupils, I give unto my dear daughter Agatha Martin, now the wife of Dr Martin, my Silver Candlestick with names engraven on the extinguisher as a similar Testimonial. And whereas I have been dispossessed of all my real estate in & by the operation of a certain Act passed in the 7 & 8 years of the Reign of her present Majesty Queen Victoria & in the year of our Lord 1844, intituled "The Bishop of Down & Connor & Dromore Estate Act," being an Act for Annexing to the United Bishoprics of Down & Connor & Dromore, the house known as Down & Connor House with the appurtenances . . . by certificate real estate charged with £10,568 18 6 being two year's income of the See of Down & Connor, I bequeath said sum with my plate, pictures & Library of Books & all policies of Insurance on my Life &c. unto my 2 sons W: B: & F: W: Mant & half of above to such person & for such intents as my beloved daughter Agatha Martin, whom I thus distinguish (not as being less sensible of the filial affection & natural claims of my sons, but for an equitable consideration that circumstances have precluded me from giving her during my life that assistance to my said daŭr & her large family to w̃ch she might justly be entitled) for her own separate use and benefit with power of appointment. The other half to his sons & their children &c.

Signed 28 March 1848 Rd Down & Connor & Dromore.

Isaac Schomberg, son of Meyer Schomberg, M.D., (twin brother to Ralph Schomberg, M.D., F.S.A.), was born at Schweinsberg in Hesse Cassel 19 August, 1714. He was educated at Merchant Tailors School, and at Leyden, where he took the degree of M.D.

In 1747 he entered at Trinity College, Cambridge, and was created Doctor of Medicine per litteras regias on 21 July, 1749. He brought an unsuccessful and at the time notorious action against the College of Physicians in 1753. He was admitted a Licentiate of that College 23 December 1765 and a Fellow 30 September 1771.

He died unmarried in Conduit Street, London, 4 March, and was buried at St. George's, Hanover Square, London, 8 March 1780.

His Will (PPC. 451 Collins) was dated 16 March 1761, and admin. granted 11 September 1780.

His portrait was painted by Hudson and engraved by Sherlock. Two other portraits, one in his robes (painter unknown) and another attributed to Hogarth, are in the possession of the Schomberg family.

Grant of Arms to the Family of Gale, 1712.

To all and singular to whom these Presents shall come S^r Henry S^t George Knight Garter Principal King of Arms and Peter Le Neve Esq^r Norroy King of Arms send Greeting. Whereas John, Ebenezer and Elisha Gale all of Whitehaven in the County of Cumberland, did by their Petition Pray the Right Hon^ble Henry Earl of Suffolk and Bindon &c one of the Lords of her Maties most Hon^ble Privy Council and Deputy (with the Royal Approbation) to His Grace Thomas Duke of Norfolk Earl Marshal & Hereditary Marshal of England, to refer the Examination of their Pedigree with the Proofs thereunto annexed to the Kings of Arms concerned, & to cause them to make a true Report thereof to Him, to the End that the Arms claimed by the Pet^rs as their rightfull arms, might be Allowed & Confirmed to them and their Descendents, with such fitting Distinctions from the Arms of the Family of Gale of Akam in the County of York, as his Lord^p should think fit. And whereas pursuant to his Lord^ps Order of Reference to us, dated the 22^th March last, to Examine the Allegations of the Pet^rs We did Report to his Lord^p under Our hands, that We did think it probable upon what had been alledged to Us, that Robert Gale, Grandfather of the said Pet^rs might be descended of some younger Brother of the Family of Gale of Akam, But his Descendents not knowing how to Derive their Descent directly from the said Family so as to entitle them to bear their arms without his Lord^ps Consent and Allowance, We were of Opinion, that his Lord^p might Order Us, to Assign and Confirm unto the said John, Ebenezer & Elisha Gale & their Descendents, the aforesaid Arms of Gale of Akam, differenced as in the margin of Our said Report, therewith transmitted to His Lord^p was Depicted. And whereas the said Earl of Suffolk & Bindon having considered the Premisses, did by Warrant under His hand & seal, bearing date the 13^th of this instant June, Order & appoint Us, to Assign and Confirm unto the said John, Ebenezer & Elisha Gale, & to their Descendents respectively the Arms & Crest borne by the said Family of Gale of Akam differenced as aforesaid. Know ye therefore That We the said Garter & Norroy, in pursuance of his Lord^ps Consent signified to Us as aforesaid & by virtue of the Letters Patent of Our Offices to each of Us respectively Granted under the Great Seal of England, have Assigned & Confirmed and do by these Presents Assign & Confirm unto the said John Ebenezer & Elisha Gale three Arms & Crest hereafter mentioned viz^t Argent on a Fess between three saltires Humetté Azure, an Anchor between two Lions heads erased Or; and for their Crest, on a Wreath Or and Azure an Unicorns head couped Argent charged with two Pallets Blew, Armed and Crined Or, over all an Anchor Gold as in the margin hereof the same are Depicted. To be Borne & Used for ever hereafter by them the said John, Ebenezer, & Elisha Gale & the Heirs & other Descendents of their respective Bodies lawfully begotten, with their Due Differences according to the Law of Arms without lett or Interruption. In Witness whereof We the said Garter and Norroy Kings of Arms have to these Presents set our Names & affixed the seals of Our respective Offices this Twenty Eight Day of June in the Eleventh year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lady Anne by the Grace of God Queen of Great Britain France and Ireland Defender of the Faith &c. Annoque Dom. 1712.

HENRY S[T] GEORGE Garter Principal King of Arms. PETER LE NEVE Norroy King of Arms.

Will of John Gayle, 1680.

Inventory taken by Clement Nicholson and James Milham as follows: Purse and apparel, £25; $\frac{1}{8}$ share ship "Crown," £80; $\frac{1}{16}$ share ship "Kent," £30; stock in trade, £200; total, £335.

Will of John Gale, 1729.

John Gale of Whitehaven. Will dated 2 January 1726; probate granted 30 October 1729 to Matthias Gale and William Gale, brothers, Exors. Bequests: To my wife, Elizabeth Gale, £50 per annum, paid quarterly, and £500 sterling to be paid in five years in yearly payments of £100 per annum, if she live as long; also use of my house and garden, and of my pew No. 78 in the old chapel, and use of furniture and plate for life, with power to give such of these latter (furniture and plate) as she thinks fit to any of my brothers or nephews of the name of Gale. To my nephew, Leven Gale, now settled beyond the seas, £500; and to his three brothers, John, George and Matthias Gale, £500, to be equally divided between them within three years, at most, of my death. To my cousin, Thomas Gale, all right and title to that part of the "Old Hall," with garden, &c., now in his possession, and the sum of £100 sterling, provided he secure to my brother Matthias Gale the payment of £5 per annum rent, part of the £11 per annum rent due to Sir J. Lowther and his successors. To my brother William Gale and his heirs, my timber yard, cock pit, and seat in the "Old Chappel" No. 78, together with my plantation at Kingston in Maryland; also half my share in the ships "Cumberland" and "Somerset," the whole ship "Clotilda," and my share in the ship "Sea Flower," and all my books, music, and musical instruments. To my brother Matthias, my freehold estate, rents and funds in and about the town of Egremont, and all the rest of my freehold and leasehold property situate in Whitehaven, and my seats Nos. 61 and 102 in the "Old Chappel," also half my share of the ships "Cumberland" and "Somerset," and all my ship "Carlisle," provided that my brother Matthias Gale shall pay or secure to my said brother William Gale £400 sterling out of the value of the said houses and lands given him, within six months of my decease. To my nephew and niece, James and Elizabeth Milham, to the three daughters of my sister Grayson, and the two daughters of my sister Marshall, each £50 to be paid at the age of 21. To my unkle Eben and aunt Isabella Gale, and the survivor of them, £10 per annum for life paid quarterly, and to Elizabeth, daughter of my said unkle Eben, £10 per annum for her life. To Margaret, wife of Ri: Wilsen, a legacy of £10; and to Mary Stephenson £5 per annum for her life; and to the sons and daughters of my uncle Elisha Gale each a guinea. To Sarah, wife of Jonathan Smith, twelve pence per week for life, and

Gale. [Vol. 1, p. 277.]

£30 to be divided equally between her children as they come to 21; and to the children of my cousin Barbara Pearson, or the survivor of them, £20 to be paid at the age of 21; and to Samuel Thompson ten guineas, and to each of my servants living with me at my death two guineas. To poor widows and the poor of Whitehaven £20, to be distributed by my Exors at my decease. If my estate fall short of the amount here bequeathed, each legatee to receive less in the same proportion except my dear wife, who is to receive in full. Debts due to me at my death from my Exors, Matthias and William (other than for lodging and diet, which are hereby remitted), to be allowed as part of their legacies; and if there be any surplus, it is to be divided equally between them. Aforesaid Matthias and William Gale named Exors.

Will of Lowther Gale, 1735.

Lowther Gale, Mariner, of Whitehaven. Will dated 25 March 1714; probate granted 13 October 1735 to Matthias Gale, surviving Exor. Bequests: To my father, John Gale, the yearly interest or profit on £100 for life. To my brother, John Gale, junior, the yearly interest or profit on all the rest of my estate. After the death of my father, the £100 to be equally divided between the four sons of my brother George, deceased, or the survivors of them, share and share alike. To my youngest sister, Susannah Marshal, £5 at the decease of my father. The rest of my personal estate, goods and chattels, to be divided into five parts, and thus disposed: $\frac{1}{5}$ to my brother John Gale; $\frac{1}{5}$ to my brother Matthias Gale; $\frac{1}{5}$ to my brother William Gale; $\frac{1}{5}$ to be equally divided between my sisters Elizabeth Milham and Mary Grayson; $\frac{1}{5}$ to be divided equally between the four sons of my brother George aforesaid. Exors, my brothers John Gale and Matthias Gale.

Will of Elisha Gale, 1740.

Elisha Gale of Whitehaven. Will dated 15 November 1737; probate granted 17 October 1740 to Peter Gale, and power reserved to Joseph Gale, the other Exor. To my wife, Elizabeth Gale, all my real and personal estate for her life, and at her death, To my son Joseph Gale, my dwelling house called the "Old Hall," with all granaries, cellars, kilns, mills, garden, stable, and outhouses, held from Sir J. Lowther, also all my half share in the houses and storehouses situated in Tickel's Lane. To my son Peter, all my freehold houses, shops, cellars, penthouses, &c., "fronting the Market place, running from Mr Stephensons down to the highway, close to ye Beck-side, & also all those buildings joyning to it, running down the Beck-side, & joining to William Ramsay's on the North, & also all those Back houses which I purchased from Mr Robertson." My household goods, chattels and furniture, equally between my sons Joseph and Peter Gale. My table linen to my wife. To my daughter Jane, wife of Mr. Joseph Taylor, one shilling. Sons, Joseph Gale and Peter Gale, Exors.

Will of Elizabeth Gale, 1743.

Elizabeth Gale, widow, of Whitehaven. Will dated 20 February 1735; probate granted 6 May 1743 to niece Elizabeth Gale. Sureties, Elizabeth Gale, Thomas Patrickson and Peter Gale. Testatrix, widow of John Gale of Whitehaven. Funeral expenses not to exceed £20. To my brothers-in-law, Matthias Gale and William Gale, £200 in trust for the augmentation of the salary of the minister of the "Old Chapel," on condition that twelve poor Whitehaven children be taught by him to read English, and that he distribute forty shillings among the poor yearly at Xmas. If, however, augmentation of the minister's salary be obtained from Queen Anne's bounty, the £200 to be paid into the bounty. £5 to be distributed among 100 poor of Whitehaven at my decease. To my sister Isabel Gale, £20. To my niece Elizabeth, daughter of the said Isabel, £100. To my niece Margaret Wilson, widow, £30; to her daughter Isabella Wilson, £50; and to her daughter Margaret Wilson, £50. To my niece Margaret Wills, £30. To my nieces, Elizabeth, wife of Richard Tickell, and Martha, wife of Thomas Patrickson, £10 each. To my niece Mary Bamber, and to her son Robert Stephenson, £10 each. To my niece Bolton, my niece Todd, my sister Grayson, and my sister Marshall, two guineas each. To my maid-servant, two guineas. To Jane Bonn and Anne Atkinson, widows, two guineas each. To my nephew Richard Tickell, his picture, all the Indian rarities he gave to me, and one guinea to buy a ring. To my nephew Christopher Wilson, the gold-headed cane, the counters, and other Indian rarities he gave to me, and a guinea to buy a ring. To my nephew Thomas Gale, the set of china he gave me, and two guineas to buy him and his wife each a ring. To my brothers Matthias and William Gale between them, the furniture of the house and plate, except my bed, pillows, blankets and two pairs of sheets, my suit of damask linen, which was my mothers, and my hog-a-back table linen, which I give to my said niece Elizabeth Gale. To my said niece Elizabeth Gale, my gold watch, clothes and rest and residue of my goods and chattels, and I make her sole Executrix.

Codicil: besides above, £5 bequeathed for keeping six boys and six girls at school for one year.

It should be noted that John Gale, husband of Elizabeth, the above Testatrix, and his uncle Ebenezer Gale, married sisters, and the sole Executrix Elizabeth was daughter of Ebenezer and Isabel his wife, sister to Testatrix. This accounts for differences of designation between this will and that of her husband; i.e. her husband calls Thomas Gale, son of Ebenezer, cousin, whilst she calls him nephew.

Two flat stones in Copgrove Churchyard, co. York.

Fac-simile of a Portrait of John Crawfurd (1694–1762) of S^t^ Hill in East Grinsted, co. Sussex, and of the Inner Temple, Messenger to the Great Seal; now in the possession of his great-great-grandson, the Rev. Charles Walter Payne Crawfurd, East Court, East Grinstead. The armorial bearings are those of himself and his wife (née Gibbs).

Fac-simile of a water-colour drawing of Saint Hill in East Grinstead, co. Sussex, as originally built by John Crawfurd about 1730, when he left Ardmillan, co. Ayr, and settled in Sussex. On the original picture (by Lambert of Lewes), which is now in possession of the Rev. Charles Walter Payne Crawfurd, East Court, East Grinstead, is a note to the effect that about the year 1766, Gibbs Crawfurd, son of the above John Crawfurd, sold the large oak tree, there shown, for the sum of £50.

Fac-simile of a Portrait (by Sir Joshua Reynolds) of Gibbs Crawfurd (1732-1793) of S^t^ Hill in East Grinsted, co. Sussex, J.P., and of S^t^ Clement Danes, Strand, London, a Clerk of the Ordnance and M.P. for Queenborough, co. Kent; now in the possession of the Baroness Burdett-Coutts.

Pedigree of Crawfurd.

Andro Craufurd, Laird of Baidland, in the parish of Dalry, co. Ayr, N.B.—Margaret, dau. of Lockhart of Lee.

[This or a later Andro Craufurd of Baidlane appears in a Baidland title deed of 1588 as then living and successor of a deceased Johnne Craufurd, who is therein styled "fewe of ye fyve pund land of Baidlane."] According to Paterson he died in April 1630 at Nether Possil, Glasgow, and in his will names the Rt. Hon^ble^ Sir James Lockhart of Lie, Knt., Sir James Lockhart, younger, of Lie, Knt., Hugh Craufurd of Clobarhill and Cornelius Craufurd of Jordanhill, with others, to be tutors to his eldest son James, and such other of his children as were minors; "And as to his Lar. will and legacie he levis his saull to the Lord qu evir it sall pleis God to call him . . . and his bones to be bureit in the ordinar place." [The Craufurds of Baidland claimed descent from Sir Reginald de Craufurd, Sheriff of Ayr, who, circa 1200 A.D., married the heiress of Loudoun.]

In her husband's will (1630) he names "M.grat Lockhart his spous, his onlie exrix and intromissatrix wt. his guids and geir." Paterson states she was alive in 1646.

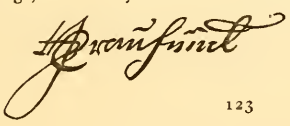
James Craufurd of Baidland, the eldest son named in his father's will (1630), and therein commended as a vassal to the care of his Superior, Alexander Erle of Eglintoun; apparently a minor in 1630. Paterson says "he probably died soon after without issue." Robertson makes no mention of him or of the above will.

William Craufurd of Baidland; probably one of the minors referred to in the above will, and if so, then born after 1610. Robertson makes him son of a Patrick Craufurd of Baidland, but he agrees with Paterson that this William Craufurd of Baidland was the father of James Craufuird of Ardmillan; of this fact there is confirmation in a later title deed of Ardmillan, which styles James Craufuird of Ardmillan "filius Gulielmi Craufuird de Baidland."

Other children, minors at their father's death in 1630.

A

The Rt. Hon^ble^ James Craufuird, Laird of Baidland, and later of Ardmillan in Girvan, co. Ayr, which latter title he adopted after his marriage; probably eldest son and heir, and born circa 1625; a conspicuous figure in the civil and religious broils of Scotland temp. Charles II. (Wodrow's History). In 1673 he recorded his arms at Lyon Office thus: Gules, on a fesse ermine, between three mullets argent, two crescents interlaced of the field. Motto: Durum patientiâ frango; and was then styled "of Ardmillen alias Bedlem and descanded of the familie of Loudoun." In 1683 appointed by the Privy Council Commissioner for the Bailliary of Carrick, and included in the Royal Commission for co. Ayr. By a settlement of 22 September 1682, he irrevocably entailed Ardmillan on his eldest son William's family, but, owing to that son's extravagance and debts, he attempted, by deed of 29 May 1698, to revoke the former settlement and dispose of Ardmillan in favour of his 3rd son James, "a frugal young man"; this revocation and new disposition gave rise to litigation after the settlor's death, but the later disposition was set aside in 1710 by the Court of Session, and finally by the House of Lords in 1712; many interesting family details are preserved in the papers of the case (Arniston Collection of Session Papers, Vol. 15, No. 53) in the Advocate's Library, Edinburgh. The old Laird died at Ardmillan in 1708 at a great age, in which year he records that "by reason of age and sickness this three years last by past I became weak and infirm and my sight failed me."



Marion, eldest dau. [and coheir (?)] of the Rt. Hon^ble^ Hew and Margaret Kennedy of Ardmillan. On her marriage, circa 1654, her husband had seizin of the Ardmillan estate, which had belonged for many generations to the Kennedy family, her ancestor, Thomas Kennedy of Knockreoth, being named in a title deed as grantee of Ardmillan lands in 1536. She probably died before 1682, as in the settlement then made of the estate by her husband, she is no party to the deed and receives no provision under it. Arms of Kennedy of Ardmillan: Argent, a chevron gules, between three cross-crosslets fitched sable, within a double tressure. Crest: A gamehawk hooded and belled. [This crest has been used by the Crawfuirds of Ardmillan and the Crawfurds of Sussex for many generations, and was probably borrowed from the Kennedy family at this time, when their estate and title passed to the Craufuirds. It will be noted that in 1673, James Craufuird recorded his arms and motto but no crest.]

Andrew Craufuird, probably a younger son, and born circa 1625; called "my brother" in the settlement made by the Laird of Ardmillan in 1682, also "Captain Andrew Crawfoord" in a deed of same year. The inference from the later settlement of 1698 is that he was already dead, leaving no male issue.

Other sons possibly, since various authorities assert that about this date cadets of the family, bearing the arms of Baidland, settled in Ireland, and became ancestors of Crawfords, now resident there.

Isobel, probably born circa 1625, and referred to in the Laird of Ardmillan's entail of the estate 22 September 1682, as "my sister," and as mother of "Mr. Patrick Crawfurd my nevey." In Robertson's "Ayrshire Families" (1825) she is said to have marr. James Crawfurd of Jordanhill, who died in 1695, being the ancestor of "many respectable families of the present age," amongst others, that of Sir Robert Crawfurd-Pollock of Pollock, Bart., son of Sir Hew Crawfurd of Jordanhill.

William Craufuird, younger of Ardmillan, eldest son; born circa 1658; distinguished for his defence of the Bass Rock in 1691 for James II., that being the last place in the United Kingdom to surrender to William III. Called by his father "a lavish spender and a flagitious person, unfit to be trusted with that little estate God in His Providence had bestowed on me." His father's attempt (1698) to disinherit this son in favour of the 3rd son, James, failed as above stated, and Ardmillan continued to descend in this line until it was sold circa 1876, on the death of James Crawfuird, Lord Ardmillan, who was Solicitor-General for Scotland 1853–55. William Craufuird died v.p., leaving two sons, Archibald, who became Laird of Ardmillan, and William.

= Margaret, dau. and coheir of Thomas Kennedy of Baltersane. She signs a lease of Ardmillan in 1699 "Margrat Kennedy," and is therein styled Margaret Kennedy, Lady of Ardmillan, marr. before 1682.

Andrew Crawfuird, 2nd son; born circa 1660; witness to a lease of Ardmillan 1679; named in the 1682 entail of Ardmillan; to have "5,000 merks Scots money" as his portion; probably died s.p.m. before 1698, as he is not then cited to appear with others interested under the entail of 1682.

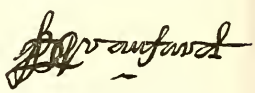
Marion, eldest dau., and named in the 1682 entail as wife of David Crawfurd of Drumsoy. Both dead before the 1698 settlement. They left (with a dau., who marr. Stewart of Fintuloch) two sons, David Crawfurd, who became Historiographer to Queen Anne for Scotland, and James Crawfurd.



Other issue (according to Robertson), "some of whom he settled in Ireland, where some branches still remain, bearing the family arms as cadets." This is improbable, and perhaps applies to cadets of the preceding generation.

Jane, eldest dau.; born circa 1726; named as one of the four next of kin in the admon of her grandfather, Edward Gibbs (1744), and legatee of £1,000 under her father's will (1761); died unmarried, aged 47, 7 March 1773 (no record of burial).

James Craufuird of Ardmillan, co. Ayr, 3rd son; born circa 1661; a Notary Public and "bred to the law"; named in the 1682 entail of Ardmillan, his portion to be "4,000 merks Scots money," writer of that deed, which is still extant. In 1698 he helped his father to revoke the earlier settlement and to resettle Ardmillan in his own favour, to the exclusion of his elder brother William's issue. He was then duly infeft, and continued in possession of the family estate until his death, v.p., in 1706. This alteration of the entail led, after 1708, to protracted litigation, which only ended in 1712, when the House of Lords upheld the earlier settlement and adjudged Ardmillan to Archibald Craufuird, senior grandson and next heir of the old Laird. This James was writer of several of the Ardmillan title deeds, one of 1682 is "ex chirographo Jacobi Crawfurd factoris nostri," in another he is styled "Clericus Glasgnensis diocesios notarius publicus," adding this motto to his signature: "Recte agendo neminem timeo J. Craufuird n.p." He died, as above stated, v.p. in 1706, leaving an only child, John Crawfurd, entitled, under the 1698 settlement, to succeed to the Ardmillan estate.

= Jean, dau. of James Crawford, "wryter to ye sygnett" [brother to Auchenames?]. She brought to her husband a considerable portion, and this influenced the old Laird to choose her husband (his own 3rd son) for his successor in the family estate, which had become greatly impoverished by the eldest son's debts. Left a widow in 1706. She lived on still at Ardmillan under the old Laird's roof, as guardian of her infant son, John Crawfurd, until old Ardmillan's death in 1708, when she retired with her son to Clydesdale. Guardian of her son in the litigation which lasted till 1712. No further record. Signs herself in 1705 "Jean Crawford" on a lease of Ardmillan.

John Crawfurd of S[t] Hill, in East Grinsted, co. Sussex, and of the Inner Temple, London, only child; born circa 1694, and living as a child in his grandfather's house at Ardmillan. On the old Laird's death in 1708 he succeeded as a minor to Ardmillan under the 1698 settlement, but his senior cousin, Archibald Craufuird, set up and established the earlier entail of 1682, and in 1712 ousted him from possession. Soon after this decision he left Scotland and came South, for in 1725 he was admitted at the Inner Temple, London, being then "de Ashdown Forest in com. Sussex armiger." Henceforth his connection was with Sussex, his adopted home, and in Robertson's Pedigree (1825) of his Ardmillan cousins, he is referred to as "John, who settled in England and, it is believed, his descendants there are now a considerable family in Sussex." In 1725 he bought a farm at Ardingly, co. Sussex (probably Lyewood) for £220, and sold one at Rotherfield for £100, owned the Manor of Duddleswell on Ashdown Forest 1726–30, and the Manor of Goddenwick (Lindfield) in 1745, built the family house, S[t] Hill in East Grinsted, circa 1730, and by degrees acquired from neighbouring yeomen the surrounding farms, viz., Belman's Town, Standen (for £900), Gabriels (for £1817), thus founding the Saint Hill Estate, which became the family home and so continued for several generations. He died 16 December 1762 ("Gentleman's Magazine"), being then described as Messenger to the Great Seal. Will dated 1761, proved (P.C.C.) in 1763. No record of burial, but this was probably at Laleham, co. Middlesex, his wife's home, where he had inherited the property of the Gibbs family, and where the Registers for this period are missing. His portrait, with the arms of Crawfurd and Gibbs thereon, is now at East Court, East Grinstead, penes his great-great-grandson, the Rev. Charles Walter Payne Crawfurd, M.A., J.P., now the representative of this line.

= [Elizabeth (?)], dau. and heir of Edward Gibbs of Laleham, and niece of Thomas Gibbs (died in 1727) and Captain Jeffrey Gibbs (died in 1729), whose M.I. are in the floor of the chancel at Laleham Church. Her father, Edward Gibbs, died intestate, aged 95, in 1743 (admon granted, P.C.C., in 1744), and his portrait by Thomas Hudson was, in 1895, penes his descendants at Lawnswood, Burgess Hill, co. Sussex. Her mother's portrait is at East Court, East Grinstead. Edward Gibbs left as his only next of kin the four children of John Crawfurd. She probably married circa 1724, and must have died v.p. before 1744 (no record of death or burial).

John Crawfurd, younger son; named in the admon of his grandfather, Edward Gibbs (1744), then an infant. No further record, and he doubtless died young, not being mentioned in his father's will (1761).

E

Margaret, 2nd dau.; named in the 1682 entail, her portion to be "2,500 merks Scots money"; then wife of William Kennedy the younger, of Knocknoldine, co. Kircudbright. Probably no male issue, as none is cited to appear in the later revocation of the entail.

Marie, 3rd dau.; named in the 1682 entail, her portion to be "2,500 merks Scots money." In 1690 still living with her father at Ardmillan and unmarried.

Harriot Godolphin, younger dau.; born circa 1732; marr. in 1753; died, aged 77, 4 September 1809, and bur. in the Board vault at Lindfield. M.I. in church there. Left 3 daughters only, viz., Harriot, who marr. 1stly, Rev. John Bodicote, and 2ndly, Edward, 2nd Earl Winterton; Louisa, who marr. Rev. William Moreton-Moreton of Moreton Hall, co. Chester; and Frances, who marr. Captain Thomas Gibbs Crawfurd, her 1st cousin (see page 127).

William Board of Paxhill, in Lindfield, co. Sussex, an estate about 7 miles South of St Hill, and long owned by the Board family; bapt. at Lindfield 30 August 1731; J.P.; bur. there in the Board vault, "with the ashes of his ancestors." M.I. in church there. "An able and active Magistrate." Will proved at Lewes. His great nephew, John Board of Farley in Westerham, co. Kent, is the present representative of this family. Arms (Visitation of Sussex 1634): Per fesse, gules and argent, an escutcheon within an orle of martlets or. Crest: A stag.

Gibbs Crawfurd of St Hill in East Grinsted, co. Sussex, and of St Clement Danes, Strand, London; born circa 1732; succeeded his father at St Hill in 1762, J.P. for co. Sussex 1763–93, Clerk of the Ordnance 1782–93 at a salary of £600, nominated a Game-keeper for Chittingly Manor, co. Sussex, 1786, M.P. for Queenborough, co. Kent, 1790–93. The family estate now included, besides the house, park and demesne of St Hill, these farms, &c., viz., Belmans Town, Gabriels, Hook and Barley Fields, Dungates, Hollybush, Standen and Mays, all in East Grinsted, with Lyewood Common in Ardingly, and in all about 800 acres. By his marriage with the heiress of the Payne family, the bulk of their property in East Grinsted and elsewhere became merged finally in the estate of Gibbs Crawfurd, making a total of about 2,500 acres at his death. His service of china made circa 1780 (see fac-simile, "Visitation of England and Wales," Vol. 2, p. 8), with the arms of Crawfurd and Payne, is now at East Court, East Grinstead, in possession of their great-grandson. His portrait, by Sir J. Reynolds, P.R.A., belongs to the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, and another, by the same hand, was formerly at St Hill, afterwards at Paxhill, co. Sussex, but has been lost since 1840. He rebuilt St Hill circa 1792, and dying, aged 61, 13 October 1793, was bur. in the Payne and Crawfurd vault under the chancel of St Swithun's, East Grinstead. M.I. there. Will proved (P.C.C.) in 1793.

Anna, dau. and heir of Charles Payne of East Grinsted, by Mary (née Pinn) his wife; bapt. at Newick, co. Sussex, 4 January $17\frac{31}{32}$; marr. at St Dunstan's, Fleet Street, London, in 1760. She inherited almost the whole estate of the ancient family of Payne of East Grinsted, some of which had already descended in her family for more than two centuries. She brought to her husband the following farms, &c., viz., The Moats, The Dean, Piggotts Fields, Dunnings (with water-mill), Butlers and Court House, Brooklands, Gallows Croft or Pilchers, The Brickyard, all in the parish of East Grinsted, also Burleigh Arches Manor in Worth, Little Hickstead in Twineham, Huggetts Furnace (with water-mill) in Mayfield, Chittingly Manor in West Hoathly, Goddenwick Manor in Lindfield, Dunks in Lamberhurst, co. Kent, her ancestral Burgage house and garden in the borough of East Grinsted, and Alfrey's annuity, purchased by her ancestor, Edward Payne, in 1585. She also owned $\frac{3}{8}$ths of the Rectorial Tithes of East Grinsted, purchased by another ancestor, Edward Payne of East Grinsted, in 1625, and now descended to her great-grandson, the Rev. Charles Walter Payne Crawfurd, together with the rights of Lay Rector in the chancel of St Swithun's, East Grinstead. Her portrait is at East Court. Buried in the family vault beneath the chancel of St Swithun's, East Grinstead, 16 September 1797. Will proved (P.C.C.) in 1798. Arms of Payne (granted 1661): Party per fesse, sable and argent, two lions passant counterchanged. Crest: A lion's head erased.

D

Anna Maria, elder dau.; bapt. at St Clement Danes, Strand, London, 22 December 1763; bur. in the chancel of St Swithun's, East Grinsted, 5 February 1764.

Charles Payne Crawfurd of Saint Hill in East Grinstead, co. Sussex, elder son; born 9 April, bapt. at St Clement Danes, Strand, 16 May 1765; educated at Eton and St. John's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1786, M.A. 1789; Barrister-at-Law of Gray's Inn, Paymaster of Widows' Pensions, J.P. for co. Sussex; died at Sydenham, co. Kent, 13 March ("Gentleman's Magazine"), bur. in family vault in the chancel of St Swithun's, East Grinstead, 22 March 1814. Will proved (P.C.C.) 21 March 1814. Portrait by H. P. Briggs, R.A., now at East Court, East Grinstead. He was succeeded at Saint Hill by his only child and heir, the late Robert Crawfurd of Saint Hill, J.P. and D.L. for co. Sussex.

= Arabella, eldest dau. of Rev. Narcissus Charles Proby, M.A., Rector of Stratford St Mary, co. Suffolk, by Arabella (née Weller) his wife; born at Stoke-by-Nayland, co. Suffolk, 19 June, bapt. there 12 July 1771; marr. at Stratford St Mary 5 June 1800; died at Saint Hill 2 March, bur. in Crawfurd vault at St Swithun's, East Grinstead, 9 March 1837. M.I. in chancel there. Admon granted (P.C.C.) 3 April 1837. Portraits of Arabella Crawfurd and of her mother by E. Bristowe, and one of her father by John Constable, R.A., are at East Court, East Grinstead; also one, painted in 1692 by Sir Godfrey Kneller, of her great-grandmother, Katharine (née Booth of Water Gate Street in Chester), wife of Captain James Howard of the Guards. Of this ancestress (1672–1765), the tomb with long and interesting monumental inscription is in Chester Cathedral.

(For issue see "Visitation of England and Wales," Vol. 2, page 8.)

Frances (his 1st cousin), 3rd dau. and coheir of the above-named William Board of Paxhill, in Lindfield, co. Sussex (whose ancestor, Ninian Board, built the family house in 1606); born circa 1768; marr. at St George's, Hanover Square, London, 8 December 1795; died at Paxhill, aged 40, 16 February 1808, and bur. in the Board vault at Lindfield with her ancestors. M.I. in church there. 1st wife.

= Thomas Gibbs Crawfurd of Paxhill, in Lindfield, co. Sussex, younger son; bapt. at St Clement Danes, Strand, London, 24 November 1768 [not 1769, as on M.I. below]; J.P. for co. Sussex, Captain in the Royal Horse Guards (Blue). He inherited from his father Lyewood House and Farm in Ardingly, also a rent charge out of the family estate of Saint Hill. By his marriage with his cousin he eventually succeeded to the Paxhill estate. Died at Lyewood House, bur. at Lindfield 24 July 1830. M.I. in church there. Will proved (P.C.C.) He left by this marriage (with two daughters) an only son, William Board Edward Gibbs Crawfurd, who died s.p.m. in 1840.

= Martha Murrell, spinster [of Lindfield (?)]; married circa 1812; left a widow in 1830, and succeeded her husband in the Lyewood property; bur. at Lindfield 30 July 1845, leaving issue an only dau., who married Horatio Williams. 2nd wife.

Anna, younger dau.: born in 1770; marr. John Antrobus of London, Banker, who died, aged 32, 27 April 1794. She died, aged 23, 18 June 1793. Both bur. in the chancel of St Swithun's, East Grinstead. M.I. there. Of their two sons, Edmund Antrobus, the elder, of Amesbury, co. Wilts, succeeded as 2nd Bart., the younger was Gibbs Crawfurd Antrobus of Eaton Hall, co. Chester, M.P.

Crawfurd Memoranda.

Craufuird of Baidland. An account of this "ancient house" appears in George Crawfurd's "History of the Crawfords," compiled about 1725, and preserved in the Advocate's Library, Edinburgh.

"Baidland-Crawfuird, the ancient seat of the family is in the parish of Dalry, about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles N.W. of the town. It is still so called to distinguish it from the adjacent territory and mansion of Bedland-Cunningham, once the seat of a family of that name, nearly co-existent both in antiquity and duration and which lies betwixt it and the water of Rye" (Robertson's "Ayrshire Families," 1825).

The original estate of Baidland was alienated about 1712 to Hugh Macbride, merchant in Glasgow.

Crawfuird of Ardmillan. The Right Hon^ble^ Hew Kennedy, elder of Ardmillan, had a son and two daughters: one of whom, v.p., married James Craufuird of Baidland about 1654. Soon after this marriage we find Craufuird has received seisin of the Kennedys' estate, and henceforth styled Laird of Ardmillan. The house is about two miles south from the town of Girvan.

Ardmillan remained the seat of the senior branch of this family until the estate was sold in 1876 on the death, s.p.m., of James Crawfuird, Lord Ardmillan, who was Solicitor-General for Scotland 1853–55.

Crawfurd of Saint Hill. This house, $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles south of the town of East Grinstead, co. Sussex, was built about 1730, by John Crawfurd, who, having failed in 1712 to establish his right to succeed his grandfather at Ardmillan, left Scotland and settled in Sussex.

Before John Crawfurd acquired the property there was no family seat upon it; he seems to have purchased some 80 acres of the fields, which we find referred to in a deed of 1609 as "ye lands of John Drue called Santyll." These fields no doubt include the present park and demesne, and upon them the exile built for himself the house of which a picture is appended to this account.

Having thus founded a new home he gradually bought up the adjoining farms, viz., Gabriels or Green, Standen, Hollybush, Belmans Town, &c., and so was formed the nucleus of what became, in the course of another century, a considerable estate, and remained the family seat until it was sold about 1860 by the late Robert Crawfurd of Saint Hill, J.P. and D.L. His only surviving son, the Rev. Charles Walter Payne Crawfurd, M.A., J.P., is the present representative of this line, and resides at East Court, East Grinstead.

The Family Surname. In the different records the name is variously spelt; the earliest rendering seems to have been Craufurd, but it is also certain that James Craufuird, Laird of Baidland, who became Laird of Ardmillan circa 1655, consistently signed himself J. Craufuird through a period of more than 50 years.

His eldest son William and his third son James also signed themselves Craufuird. Of these, the elder was ancestor of the Crawfuirds of Ardmillan, while the younger was ancestor of the Crawfurds of Sussex.

In Sussex the name has been, since 1725, invariably spelt Crawfurd, as it was signed by John Crawfurd of S^t^ Hill, the first of the family in that county.

Armorial Bearings. These were recorded at Lyon Office in 1673 by James Craufuird of Ardmillan, alias Baidland. Gules, on a fesse ermine, between three mullets argent, two crescents interlaced of the field. Motto: Durum patientiâ frango.

It is probable that Archibald Craufurd, Lord High Treasurer of Scotland, and nominated Abbot of Holyrood in 1457, was of this family, from the fact that his arms are essentially the same with those of Baidland. The Abbot died in 1483, "and his arms are to be seen beautifully cut on the fly buttresses on the north side of the nave of the abbey: a fesse ermine, with a star of 5 points in chief, Or, surmounted with an Abbot's mitre."

It will be observed that no crest was recorded with the arms and motto in 1673; but the device of a game-hawk, hooded and belled, has been used by the family, both in Ayrshire and in Sussex, for many generations, and was probably borrowed by them from their predecessors, the Kennedys, Lairds of Ardmillan, whose crest was identical.

Family Portraits. At East Court, East Grinstead, is the following series, representing six successive generations of the Crawfurd family, viz.: An oil portrait of John Crawfurd of S^t^ Hill (1694–1762). An engraving of Gibbs Crawfurd of S^t^ Hill (1732–93) from an oil portrait by Sir Joshua Reynolds, P.R.A. An oil portrait of Charles Payne Crawfurd of Saint Hill (1765–1814) by H. P. Briggs, R.A. Oil portraits of Robert Crawfurd of Saint Hill (1801–83) by John Constable, R.A., and by John Wood, also a crayon drawing by G. Richmond, R.A. An oil portrait of the Rev. Charles Walter Payne Crawfurd, East Court, East Grinstead (born 1826), by F. Holl, R.A., and a crayon drawing of the Rev. Gibbs Payne Crawfurd, Vicar of Bicester, co. Oxford (born 1854), by W. E. Miller.
